I think those are all reasonable compromises.

Hello [Ex. 7(c)]

After speaking with our security team in more detail of the request below, they informed me that we are limited on the number of armored vehicles given all the visits happening now. They will check and see what they can do about getting the spare limo, but not able to promise at the moment. If we are not able to get the spare limo, we can replace with a rental SUV, just not armored. Rest of vehicles are good to go.

Mark – Any lead way on the below questions, just checking?

Does the Administrator still plan to leave from Rome to DC or from Bologna to DC? We recommend the entire party leave from Bologna.

If the Administrator decides to still leave from Rome to DC, does this include the full staff or just the Administrator's family and security?

Hello EPA Team,

Would like to hash out some questions on logistics and how the vehicle situation will work. Below are some questions and options that we would like to get answered soon as you're able.

ROME

Transportation - Vehicle Rental

Sedan advance	$400.00	2	days	$800.00	advance team arriving on 4/18 and 4/19
8-Pax	$600.00	12	days	$7,200.00	from 5/31 to 6/10 and 6/13
8-Pax	$600.00	7	days	$4,200.00	from 6/5 to 6/10 and 6/13
Limo Driver FAV suburban/cadillac	$400.00	7	days	$2,800.00	from 6/5 to 6/10 and 6/13
OT for drivers	$35.00	30	hours	$1,050.00
Luggage Van	$200.00	1	days	$200.00	6/5 arrival
TOTAL				$16,250

As seen above, we will have two 8-pax vans and an armored limo for Administrator. We recommend the suburban over the cadillac, because it would allow more room for additional people to ride in (like the family or any additional personnel). Do you agree?

May 31 – Advance Team

There will be an 8-pax van to pick-up this group. Does advance team need 8-pax from arrival until June 10th or stand down for rest days June 5th and 6th?

June 5 – EPA Arrival

Limo, two 8-pax vans, and a luggage van (just for arrival) for pick-up.

Will party, including the Administrator, need vehicle support on rest days June 5th (after hotel drop off) and 6th? Otherwise we can stand down on vehicle support and save cost.

June 10 – Depart for Bologna

Bologna

June 10 – Arrive Bologna

GOI will provide armored vehicle for Administrator while in Bologna. We are sure that the GOI will provide shuttles for staff upon arrival in Bologna from train station to hotel, and upon departure from hotel to train station. We still do not know if GOI provides shuttles for the staff from hotel to the G7 site.

This brings us to the logistic support for staff in Bologna in case GOI does not provide shuttles for staff. Please see both options below for staff logistics while in Bologna as we understand you would like to save cost when able.

1. Staff utilizes taxis throughout Bologna trip.
If staff is only going from hotel to G7 site this would be easiest.*

2. Staff utilizes one support vehicle and taxis throughout trip.
Support vehicle is €500 a day, €100 for lodging for overnight, and €50 per hour overtime.*

June 13 – Depart Bologna

As stated in an email from our visitor unit expert Ex. 6 - Personal Privacy “first train from Bologna is at 6:05 which arrives at 8:35 am . Then there is approx.. 1 hour journey to the airport , meaning that you would get there around 9.30. If you are planning to take the UA flight out of Rome at 10.50 am there will not be enough time.” Does the Administrator still plan to leave from Rome to DC or from Bologna to DC? We recommend the entire party leave from Bologna.

If the Administrator decides to still leave from Rome to DC, does this include the full staff or just the Administrator’s family and security?

Should be able to have a more solid budget for you by next week in order for EPA to work on fundcite for trip.
